

Plan for Carrying Water From Alaska to Arid Southwest Is Outlined

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22 (UPI) — A senate report indicated yesterday that a hard look will be taken at a bold proposal for an 80 billion dollar project to carry water from the Yukon river in Alaska as far south as Mexico. The report, released by the special subcommittee on Western water development, said the 80 billion dollar plan might provide twice as much water for the arid West as a 60-billion dollar program carried out on a project-by-project basis.

Amendment Opposed By Canal Companies

(See related story on page 16)
Two canal companies in Magic Valley have gone on record in opposition to the proposed water resources amendment to the Idaho constitution. Twin Falls Canal company, Twin Falls, and North Side Canal company, Jerome, approved resolutions opposing the amendment which would create a state water resources development agency and give it authority to issue revenue bonds to finance projects. The two companies are not in agreement in their opposition.

Hansen Says He's Assured Of Victory

George Hansen, Republican candidate for congress, opposing Rep. Ralph Harding, said Thursday that "key issues and a strong grass roots effort are winning this election for us against great odds."

He continued, "Much money and many politicians have been poured into my opponent's campaign in a desperate effort to sway this election. My opponent has a salary of tens of thousands of dollars that continues during the election, a large expense account, a paid staff, tax writeoff advantages and a franking privilege worth thousands of dollars for each mass mailing."

"He also has the Democratic war chest, the many thousands of dollars provided by the labor boss endorsement and untold thousands of dollars provided by the Council for a Livable World, not to mention other sources."

"When we see Democratic Senator Burdick from North Dakota turn back over $14,000 to the Council for a Livable World as the worst he's delivered to them, we see where an attempt to buy an election could mean losing a freedom to constantly represent the people's best interests."

"Funds are important to win an election," Hansen continued, "but freedom from commitment is more important in order to be fair and effective in office."

"I will not be able to match campaign funds are being asked to fill out new security clearance applications in the White House as a result of the Walter Jenkins affair."

"The applications are going to long-time friends as well as new employees in the executive mansion. Those having to fill them out include personnel who both through the years and recently have received the highest security ratings."

"The forms are called 'security investigation data for sensitive position.' Applications of this type are sent to the FBI for investigation."

Jenkins — one of President Johnson's closest aides who had access to classified information — resigned last Wednesday after disclosure that he had been arrested twice on morals charges. Son, Barry M. Goldwater, and other GOP candidates have raised questions about Jenkins' security status.

Fire Damages Destroyer in Seattle Area

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 22 (UPI) — Fire raged through the Todd shipyards here yesterday, severely damaging the destroyer USS Marshall which was in drydock for repairs.

Fire Chief Gordon Vickery said it was the city's worst waterfront fire in 40 years. Every downtown fire unit was sent to the scene. City fireboats and coast guard and navy fireboats helped battle the blaze which ate in a drydock and the cross-streaked pilings of nearby piers.

Vickery said the fire was contained after about three hours but it would take hours more work to extinguish the flames.

The heat caused fire to break out at several points within the destroyer.

Firefighters had considered sinking the drydock but decided to keep the drydock in position in order to keep the Marshall afloat.

The hull of the destroyer was open during repair work and the ship would sink if the drydock was lowered away from the burning piers.

The shipyard is on Harbor Island in Elliott Bay, a part of Puget sound.

Controversial GOP Film Is Withdrawn

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22 (UPI) — A citizens group backing Republican presidential candidate Barry M. Goldwater withdrew a controversial "morality" film for extensive editing yesterday after Goldwater decided it was not "appropriate for a political campaign in its present form."

The 30-minute documentary film, called "Cholera," already had undergone extensive editing at the request of the National Broadcasting company (NBC) which had agreed to show it on nationwide television today.

NBC had ordered two scenes cut from the film. One showed a girl in a topless bathing suit and the other pictures of "pornographic" magazine and book covers.

Republican National Chairman Dean Burch issued a brief statement saying the film "has been withdrawn." It's sponsors, however, said it would be shown after being edited to meet Goldwater's objections.

4 Districts Suggested For Idaho

BOISE, Oct. 22 (P) — A suggestion that Idaho elect its senators in four big districts on an at-large basis will be passed on to the next legislature for its consideration in trying to reapportion. It is among the numerous possible districting combinations for the house and senate being put together by the legislative council on orders from a special legislative session in August. Director Myran Schlichte said the council isn't proposing any plan, but will pass on its data to the legislature.

Psychiatrist Testifies at Idaho Trial

BOISE, Oct. 22 (AP) — A psychiatrist testified in U. S. district court today that a state senator accused of failing to file federal income tax returns "is suffering from brain damage."

Dr. John D. Gambarelli, Boise, testified at the trial of state Sen. Homer M. Wetherell, Mountain Home, who is charged with failure to file returns for the years 1959-62.

Dr. Gambarelli said he examined Wetherell and concluded that the latter "once was a bright, intelligent and efficient person but that from my tests it appears he is functioning at a much lower level now."

"In my opinion as a psychologist," Dr. Gambarelli added, "and from my findings I would say he is suffering from brain damage."

Most Parts Of U. S. Are Shivering

By United Press International
Dense shivers today under the touch of an immense polar air mass that rushed from the Rockies to the Atlantic coast.

Tallahassee, Fla., reported a pre-dawn low of 40 degrees, only two degrees warmer than Anchorage, Alaska. Minneapolis, St. Paul and New York, N. Y., reported 33 degree lows.

Light snow and gale force winds battered areas from Northern Minnesota to New York Wednesday night. A quarter inch of rain fell in Buffalo, N. Y., Caribou and Houlton Me., earlier reported more than an inch of rain.

The weather bureau reported that the cold front at midday stretched from northern Idaho through southern Missouri to Virginia. Lows in the 30's were reported in most areas behind the front.

California and Arizona continued to bask Wednesday in a mass of warm air. Temperatures were in the 90's from southern California through the desert and in the 80's in the southern Rockies. Los Angeles reported a high of 94 degrees.

Lanting to Head Reapportionment Panel at Parley

William J. Lanting, Twin Falls county state representative will be the main speaker during a panel on reapportionment during the ninth annual North Idaho Chamber of Commerce meeting Nov. 12 and 13.

Jack Clifford, president of the chamber, stated that "Mr. Lanting, Idaho's house majority leader, and a member of the legislative council of the state legislature, will make an invaluable contribution to the success of the coming meeting."

Clifford added that "reapportionment is one of the most important and pressing problems facing the people of Idaho today."

Mr. Lanting, he added, "is considered one of the outstanding experts on this problem in the state of Idaho."

2,700 Acres of Brush and Forest Burn Near Fairfield

FAIRFIELD, Oct. 22 — An estimated 2,700 acres northwest of Hill City in Camas county were burning out of control Wednesday afternoon.

Bureau of land management officials at Shoshone said a fire line has been completed about two-thirds of the way around the fire, but some "pretty hot spots" were building up in the timber. If the flames become too strong they will jump the fire line which is a wide ditch where the ground has been wet down, they explained.

It was reported the fire had been burning for the past several days under a permit on Moore's Creek, but Wednesday afternoon it spread to Hunter

Nobel Prize On Literature Is Declined

STOCKHOLM, Oct. 22 (UPI) — French playwright, novelist Jean-Paul Sartre, 50, declined the Nobel prize for literature today, and said he will refuse the $53,123 award.

The coveted award, whose winners are selected by the Swedish Academy of Letters, Art and Science, is a gold medal, diploma and a cash prize.

Sartre, 50, was reported by sources here to have written the prize for "personal and objective reasons."

Friends of the writer-philosopher said in France he told them he did not want any prize "other than a sack of potatoes or a Nobel prize."

In Paris, Sartre told a French newspaper he would give an explanation of his refusal later to the Swedish press.

In its citation, the academy spoke of Sartre's "imaginative writing, which by reason of its spirit of freedom and striving for truth has exercised a far-reaching influence on our age."

Russian novelist Boris Pasternak, awarded the Nobel prize in 1958, declined under pressure at home to accept the prize.

If Sartre refuses to accept the prize money the academy may put the money back into its funds.

Sartre, who for two decades has been a leading and controversial commentator and conscience of the world scene, is the 11th Frenchman to receive the Nobel literature prize. Other post-war winners include Albert Camus in 1957, Francois Mauriac in 1953 and Andre Gide 1947.

Idaho Republicans Are Declaring War on Hanky-Panky in Voting Booths

By RICHARD CHARNOCK
BOISE, Oct. 22 (UPI) — Republicans are declaring war on hanky-panky in the voting booth.

In Idaho and elsewhere across the nation, they plan to have special poll watchers in every precinct and vote counting room. They are visiting local cemeteries, double-checking voter registration lists.

"They call it 'ballot security,'" State Democratic Chairman Lloyd Walker calls it "a complete mess."

Student's Junior College Credits Can Be Transferred

"Accreditation is the key" to the transferability of credits of the proposed Twin Falls county junior college to a four-year college, said George Staudaher, principal of Twin Falls high school.

Both Staudaher and Kenneth Kall, a counselor at the high school, agreed that if the junior college does become a reality it will get its accreditation as soon

Winners Listed By Burley Club

BURLEY, Oct. 22—The Mini-Cassia Duplicate Bridge club had six and a half tables in play Tuesday evening at the Burley Elks hall.

North and south winners were Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, first; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Warrick, second; and Mrs. Lester Sanders and Mrs. H. P. Ross, third.

East and west winners included Barbara Zollinger and Mrs. C. Hunter, first; Mr. and Mrs. Max Hag, second; and Mrs. Haven Gurish and Mrs. C. R. Dalrigh, third.

as possible and all credits from this institution would be transferable. They went on to explain that this is concerned with the standards of the school, including teachers, curriculum etc.

Kall said that of some 500 Twin Falls high school seniors, approximately 250 will continue their education and most of them are undecided at this point where they will go to school next year. He said money is of concern to many of these students and an accredited junior college would be the answer to the problem of many of them.

Nancy Hackett, a senior in the school, who was interviewed, agreed that a junior college would be a temporary answer to a number of young people who want to continue their education, but don't have the funds at the time.

"Living at home and going to the junior college would save most students close to $700 a year," remarked Kall. In many cases this amount could be the deciding factor as to whether or not a high school graduate can go to college or university.

Forest Service Reports on Area Road Contracts

Ninety-nine contracts, totaling $2,938,410, were awarded for road and bridge construction during the last fiscal year in the Intermountain region of the forest service, according to Floyd Iverson, regional forester.

The contracts provided for the construction or reconstruction of 280 miles of roads, 106 miles of trails and 36 bridges.

Timber harvesting roads head the list with more than 116 miles constructed primarily for this purpose. Recreation access roads are second with 90 miles, while fire control and other purposes account for the remaining 52.

Total length of the 36 bridges contracted for is approximately 280 feet; 23 of the new bridges are replacements, while 13 are new installations.

Why Pay Twice? You already pay taxes to support a generous federal-state medical program for those over 65 who need it. Why pay again for a plan that isn't needed?

Surprised? Chances are you never heard of the Kerr-Mills Law, passed by Congress in 1960. We call it . . . Health Opportunity Program for the Elderly.

This program enables individual states, with federal assistance, to guarantee to every elderly person who needs it the health care he or she requires. Thousands of people every day are being helped by its broad benefits.

Yet, the supporters of the proposed Medicare Tax would have you believe that its passage is urgent . . . that persons over 65 are deprived of needed medical care because they can't pay for it.

So why pay twice? Find out about the health program you're already supporting. For information on health care for the elderly in your area, ask your doctor or call the number listed below.

Bright A-Future

The world has lived almost two decades in the Atomic age and still the largest single use of nuclear energy is found in the weapons of war. It's a situation that's going to change fast in the not distant future. This idea was the theme of an Idaho Falls seminar on industrial uses of the atom. There's every indication both the government and private industry are on the threshold of major breakthroughs in peacetime uses of nuclear energy.

One of the more significant aspects of nuclear progress is the fact the way has been cleared for development of a privately-owned and self-sustaining industry in the best tradition of American private initiative. Ernest B. Tremmel pointed out at Idaho Falls that a new law, effective in August, ended exclusive governmental ownership of atomic fuels. Tremmel is director of the atomic energy commission's division of industrial participation. He also estimated that electric utilities have a billion dollar investment in nuclear power while the government stake is about 1.5 billion.

There's no way of guessing the number of uses that will be found eventually for nuclear energy. Perhaps the greatest effort has been directed at finding economical ways for using nuclear energy to generate electricity. But the range of experiments with nuclear energy and its byproducts such as radiation and radiolabels must cover wide areas. It is known, for instance, there have been experiments in using radiation to preserve foods.

Regardless of the eventual size of nuclear industry Idahoans should never forget that much of the industry has been started at the national reactor testing station in the desert between Arco and Idaho Falls.

LIMITED PROBLEM

Restrictions on ownership of firearms is the goal of some Americans who would blame all sorts of crimes and delinquency on guns. They steadfastly refuse to admit that the problem is caused by people, not firearms. No gun ever committed a crime; only people commit crimes. Since the tragic assassination of President Kennedy last Nov. 22, much of the attention has been directed at the so-called mail order sale of firearms. That's the topic of an interim report of the U.S. senate subcommittee to investigate juvenile delinquency.

The report itself contains information that belies the common belief that firearms are used in virtually all crimes. The report cites figures for 1961 which indicate firearms were used in 52.5 percent of 3,008 homicides committed by persons under the age of 18. Testimony also showed that 8,000 homicides in 1959 and nearly 19,000 recorded suicides, guns were the means of death "in at least half of them."

This data from the subcommittee's report indicates authorities are concerned with use of firearms in roughly half of the nation's homicides and suicides. It's anyone's guess how many of these deaths would have involved another weapon if a firearm had not been available. However, no one can dispute that total restriction of all firearms would not end crime, or even come close to ending it. It would be interesting to know how many homicides and suicides involve only the common kitchen butcher knife. Quite obviously there are more kitchen knives than guns in circulation.

New York City's famed Sullivan law places some rather drastic restrictions on ownership of handguns and other dangerous weapons such as blackjacks, switchblades and brass knuckles. Yet crime continues to thrive in the nation's largest city. Of interest is testimony that a pistol figured in only 25 per cent of youth gang homicides.

On one specific case in Pittsburgh in which a teen-ager purchased two mail order-type pistols there appeared this notation, "Prior to his original offense involving a gun, this boy had been brought before juvenile court authorities on three separate occasions." Anyone can judge for himself whether guns were more to blame for the youth's difficulties or whether the responsibility rested with his parents and juvenile authorities.

Testimony from the District of Columbia included a report of 570 arrests in 707 cases of assault with weapons. Only 51 handguns were seized in the 570 arrests. The District of Columbia also reported 2,079 robbery cases in 1962, with only 13 per cent involving pistols. In the same period the district reported 2,086 cases of assault with a dangerous weapon. And again pistols were used in only 13 per cent of the cases.

There is no doubt of firearms in the hands of the wrong people constitute a problem and a menace. Yet the problem is not so extensive that restrictions need be placed against all law-abiding citizens.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22—At this stage of the quadrennial contest for the Presidency, it is comforting to note that the campaign has been good for Harry Goldwater. His membership in the world still sometimes amazes of the non-resident class, but he has embraced an important fact of international life.
This is named the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO), and after years of regarding it with active suspicion Goldwater has decided not only that it is a good thing but that it needs strengthening. Indeed, the voice he has raised in support of NATO has caused President Johnson to pay the organization some belated attention with the announcement he will go to Europe if elected to give NATO a Johnsonian twist of the arm.

STRONG STAND—Goldwater now wants to give NATO both military and political support toward the goal of advancing and strengthening Atlantic unity. In other words, he wants the U.S. to expand its commitment to the organization to the probable extent that this country in effect will become a full-fledged member of the European community.

This is strong talk from a man who has given his interpretation over the years of looking down his nose at our allies. It is strong talk when he delivers Rooseveltian statements such as: "To win without war we must unite the Atlantic community effectively." Uttering such 20th-century phrases, he sounds a great deal like Clarence Streit, who for years has urged the U.S. to join Europe politically in an "Atlantic federation."

STRONGER THAN PLATFORM—Streit himself is both pleased and surprised by Goldwater's switch. The Arizona politician, says Streit, is "the strongest of either party platform has thus far ever had."

Streit has a right to be pleased. Goldwater is now saying that NATO is the "keystone" of U.S. foreign policy. He has urged a meeting of a high-level international commission to seek out ways "to strengthen alliance participation and fulfillment." Dean Acheson, who was the target of conservative attacks as an "internationalist" when he was secretary of state, could applaud that sort of thing.

Goldwater seems surprised that his support of NATO has caused a stir. In a letter to Streit, he stated that "this has been my position for quite a few years and I have expressed myself on it many, many times."

POSITION POINTED—Well, not quite. In 1960, Goldwater joined a majority of the Republicans in the senate in voting against even looking into the possibility of greater Atlantic unity. At the time, he gave the impression he would not object if the U.S. withdrew from all its overseas alliances.

Time and, possibly, the exigencies of politics, has changed all that and this is good. Barry Goldwater is not only a charming and companionable man, he is a man of decency and integrity. His current conversion with NATO strengthens the arguments of those supporters who insist that President Goldwater would be far more responsible than Senator Goldwater.

Views of Others

PILOT FARM PROJECT

A pilot project was launched Tuesday by two Mankato sponsors who hope thereby to contribute to the widespread establishment of maximum profit farm practices.

The sponsors, who are the Free Press and the National Citizens Bank, became interested in the project after the Mankato Research and Development Council called "maximizing farm income" when a bulletin on that subject was published something more than a year ago. The Upper Midwest Researcher, pointing out that Minnesota farmers are earning below average income, said this could be corrected in many instances by following specific formulas.

The Free Press and the National Citizens were impressed by the recommendations and set out to find a farm where the recommended practices could be put into effect. With the assistance of Blue Earth county agricultural agent Wayne Weiser, they chose a farm near Lake Crystal, one that had been purchased in recent years by an aggressive young farmer named Jim Greenough. They wanted to know if, in addition to raising crops who kept good records and one with ambition to improve his operation, Greenough seemed to fit the bill.

The pilot project isn't intended to be an experiment in that any farmer can follow. Greenough is more interested in raising his income in raising cattle. A specific plan was laid out for him and he accepted it.
The objective isn't to prove that his formula will be a success to other farmers. Rather it is to encourage farmers in adopting well-proven practices as a method of improving their own income and of upgrading the average income for all farmers. The sponsors hope their efforts will bring a new awareness of the necessity for sound practices in farm operation—Mankato (Minn.) Free Press.

SHORT CAMPAIGN

Britons sometimes boast that their parliamentary system is a model of democracy. U. S.-style elections are shorter. Technically and superficially, there is some truth in the claim. Actually, the advantage may be in America's favor.

The British Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home last week offered to call a general election in October. A poll could be held as early as three weeks after the Queen's proclamation, allowing necessary publication of writs, etc. The campaign, however, would be a long one, for a general election must be called at least once every five years, and the last one was in October, 1963.

British voters have known, also for a long time, what the opposing leaders would be—Sir Alec and the Labor Party's Harold Wilson. U. S. voters, on the other hand, were not certain until July about the identity of one of the two major presidential candidates.

Aspirants for the British prime ministerhip do not, of course, technically contest votes nationwide. Each is a candidate only in his own constituency. But in practice party leaders there campaign over the country just as do presidential candidates in America and they have been energetically doing so for months.
This year the British campaign will thus be much the longer of the two. But the four candidates on the major presidential tickets would probably agree—rightly or wrongly—that the campaign is not short enough to begin with. They would probably be glad to go to the polls on Oct. 15, too—Portland Oregonian.

BWIMMING POOL SCOTCH

One of the great arguments of time may finally be settled now that Inverness, Scotland, admits its water contaminates Scotch whiskey. Scotch and water is a vile concoction at best, according to many "distinguished" tippers, who prefer Scotch on the rocks, or with a dash of two of soda.
The Inverness water is worse than most water, by the way. According to the clerk of the capital like the chlorinated water is so bad it tastes like it can't be as bad as Scotch swimming pools. We know a lovely lady who can't stand Scotch unless mixed with ginger ale. It's too beautiful—Hamilton (Ont.) Spectator.

CREATURES OF HABIT

Have you ever noticed that habit virtually dictates behavior of people?
Everyone's familiar with many of the more reprehensible habits such as smoking, gun chewing, fingernail biting, but notice, sometimes, the habits of some of the people with whom you associate every day. There's the guy who has to park his car in the same place every day. Or the stenographer who sets the typewriter on her typewriter before she does anything else. Take the mechanic who has to put his tools in a certain spot before he can do anything else.

There must be literally thousands of these habits or idiosyncrasies. Which ones have you noticed?

GENTLEMAN IN THE FOURTH ROW

Washington News

By LYLE WILSON

Gov. James A. Rhodes of Ohio continues to distinguish himself as a close man with the taxpayers' buck in contrast to Democrats and some other Republicans in high office.

Rhodes is a Republican. An Ohio editorial applauds his budget for the next two years and his plan for reorganization of the administration of Ohio. Most of all, the state wants for Rhodes' performance in his first 22 months on the job.

From his Democratic predecessor, Michael V. DiSalle, Rhodes inherited a deficit. He made a campaign promise to run the state within his income and he did it. As the Mansfield (Ohio) News Journal says, Rhodes refused to spend money until he knew where it was coming from. He had promised that there would be no tax hike. He kept that promise, too. Said the News Journal:

"Rhodes has certainly given Ohio a brand of fiscal sanity and skill that had been lacking for decades."

Ohio is not the only place in which the state and its taxpayers are in a tight spot. Washington, D.C., for example, John B. Knight's Akron (Ohio) Beacon Journal examined Rhodes' plan for welfare reorganization accompanied by less cost, higher salaries and better and more effective administration. The Beacon Journal summed it up in one word: Excellent.

The Cincinnati Enquirer observed that Rhodes was not the first politician to win election by promising there would be no tax hike.

The story of Rhodes and the Ohio taxpayers' dollars may get around. As the taxpayers in other states hear it, they must naturally wish that their government were similarly close with the public's dough. There could, indeed, arise in the land an insatiable chant: We want Rhodes!

Rhodes is a modest man. He is said that he does not consider himself equipped for the presidency. He is a man of modest means. There are many persons who would agree with him on that. But on the matter of economy, the modest man in Ohio looks mighty pointed to throw in an obscure rubber cap.

Actually, my favorite drummer is a fellow called Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart.

Tracy is full now of constancies and inconsistencies. She will tear up her room to put it in perfect order, then tear it apart to put it in less order.

Recently with full consideration of the drama involved she threw away her childhood, picked the toys and dolls and clothes she wanted to give to a Catholic charity. Her mother, when she noticed her throw in an obscure rubber cap.

"Why?" she asked. "Because," I told her, "that was the first toy you threw away. You threw away your first child."

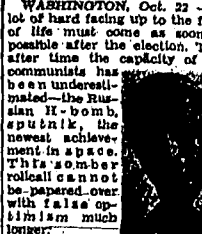

Tracy looked at the little rubber cap without remembrance, but with affection, and put it in a prized part of her room as a bridge to love between generations.

"I'll keep this for sure," she said. And seeing her there in her building glory, a bloom going away, I was desolated by a feeling of parental loneliness.

You only raise a human drop to lose it.

"Oh, Tracy! Oh, Tracy!" I tried to lose it.

MARQUIS CHILDS WRITES ON WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22—A lot of hard facing up to the fact of life must come as soon as possible after the election. Time after time the capacity of the communists has been underestimated.

The Russian II-bomb in the 20's was the correspondent predicted year after year the collapse of Soviet Russia, but has been a center for rumors about the imminent revolution in the East. This has too often been the fate of Hong Kong.

At one point it appeared that American reporters would be admitted to China. The proposal was for a reciprocal exchange of reporters. There is excellent reporting out of China today, an outstanding example being the series by Robert Ross, like Riga in Latvia, the correspondent of the New York Times, who is currently running in the Washington Post. But he is not reporting from the American viewpoint.

Those resisting any change in the donor the policy—even the "two Chinas" policy—argue that recognition has made little to the Western powers with missions in Peking. Diplomats have within a bamboo compound, but this is hardly true, and regardless of the practical gain that might come from recognition the policy of the past decade is today hopelessly outdated.

Even more deeply troubling questions must be answered as the United States is answered as a nuclear power. A confused nuclear policy is right hand seeming not to know what the left hand is doing. At least official policy is opposed to proliferation of nuclear weapons, the department approved the sale of defense planes to France. Without these refueling planes the French could be creating atomic weapons they are creating a target in the Soviet Union. The French nuclear potential is at least a second-class membership in the dangerous club and at worst a dangerous nuisance.

More serious is the American proposal for a multi-nation nuclear force. The French will have none of it. Britain's new prime minister, Harold Wilson, has declared against it. This leaves Germany, with possibly a reluctant Italy, as the only partner ready and willing.

Five nuclear powers in 1964, the reality is 10 in 1970, the probability is 15 in 1975, a Sukarno, with a nuclear weapon, however crude—that is the nightmare ahead.

But this cannot be guaranteed. Mao Tse-tung in report to the 11th National Congress of the Chinese Communist Party has said that China would be the only power to survive a nuclear war because of great depth in geography and population. While it cannot be documented, a statement is attributed to him that China could lose 200 million lives and still emerge within two or three decades as the foremost power on a ruined planet.

Neither new taxes nor an increase in the old taxes. "But he is one of the first to translate that pledge into fact," the Enquirer said editorially. It added that Rhodes was creating in Ohio a tax climate attractive to new industry.

"These new jobs," the paper continued, "will mean a growing state income at existing tax rates and will produce the revenue Ohio needs to meet its responsibilities."

Rhodes took office in January, 1963, with an austerity program which he immediately began imposing on the state payroll and elsewhere. The shrieks of anguish and threats of political revenge could be heard all the way to the Rocky mountains.

Rhodes persisted in an exhibition of courage that should shame the spenders in Washington and in state capitals. These uniformly believe that the state remains in debt only by purchase of the taxpayers' own money. There never has been such a shell game in modern times. No other game has worked so slickly and so long at the expense of the citizens and in behalf of the politicians, many of whom seem to have the political conscience of a robber baron.

The story of Rhodes and the Ohio taxpayers' dollars may get around. As the taxpayers in other states hear it, they must naturally wish that their government were similarly close with the public's dough. There could, indeed, arise in the land an insatiable chant: We want Rhodes!

Rhodes is a modest man. He is said that he does not consider himself equipped for the presidency. He is a man of modest means. There are many persons who would agree with him on that. But on the matter of economy, the modest man in Ohio looks mighty pointed to throw in an obscure rubber cap.

Actually, my favorite drummer is a fellow called Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart.

Tracy is full now of constancies and inconsistencies. She will tear up her room to put it in perfect order, then tear it apart to put it in less order.

Recently with full consideration of the drama involved she threw away her childhood, picked the toys and dolls and clothes she wanted to give to a Catholic charity. Her mother, when she noticed her throw in an obscure rubber cap.

"Why?" she asked. "Because," I told her, "that was the first toy you threw away. You threw away your first child."

Tracy looked at the little rubber cap without remembrance, but with affection, and put it in a prized part of her room as a bridge to love between generations.

"I'll keep this for sure," she said. And seeing her there in her building glory, a bloom going away, I was desolated by a feeling of parental loneliness.

You only raise a human drop to lose it.

"Oh, Tracy! Oh, Tracy!" I tried to lose it.

fact that the two over one response takes the bidding past the one no-trump level, so that if the opener wants to rebid no-trump he has to do so at the two level or higher.

In this situation the two no-trump rebid after a two over one response shows no-trump pattern; at least one stopper in every minor suit, and 13 or 14 high card points. In other words a minimum type hand, but not the absolute minimum.

The Doctor Says

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—How does diabetes affect the foot? When on a diabetic diet should I expect to gain weight?

A—Some diabetics develop gangrene of the foot. This is caused by impairment of the circulation. This is the reason diabetics should be advised to wear comfortable shoes, among other things, that victims of this disease should never sit with their legs crossed and avoid constricting garters, tight socks and tight shoes. Diabetics should also see their doctor if any cuts or infections occur on the feet or if an ingrowing toenail develops.

The diabetic diet aims at supplying essential nutrients and maintaining normal weight. If your waistline has increased, this could be due to a diet that is too rich in carbohydrates (especially checked) or temporary bloating or an abdominal tumor. Why not find out for sure?

Q—I am a 40-year-old woman. I have always bothered me to wear glasses and now that I have to wear bifocals it is terrible. I had them changed but I can't get used to them. What do you suggest?

A—Many people have trouble adjusting to bifocals. Some, like myself, find it helpful to wear them only on the street and carry reading glasses for close work. You may also wish to depend to a large extent on having the reading portion of the bifocals set not too low and not too high. Some bifocals are now made with the dividing line straight across instead of curved.

There is a new type of less called omnifocal in which the focal strength of your correction increases continuously and regularly from top to bottom with no dividing line. They are probably expensive, but you might consider contact lenses.

Q—When a doctor gives a patient a prescription, why doesn't he tell the patient what the drug is for, what the side effects will be and whether it is a habit-forming?

A—I believe that a doctor should not only give his patient this information but also explain that if undesirable side effects do occur, reducing the dosage will often accomplish the desired purpose.

Q—The bidding has been: North 3, South 3, West 3, East 3. What do you suggest?

A—You, South, hold: ♠ 8 7 6 5 4 3 2, ♥ A K J 10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2, ♦ A K J 10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2, ♣ A K J 10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2. What do you do?

A—Bid three no-trump. You haven't much of a hand so hearts are well stopped.

TODAY'S QUESTION
Instead of bidding one spade over one diamond, what do you do now?

Sees Red

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 22 (UPI)—Earl E. Cameron has decided today he won't blow his horn even if the driver ahead of him sits through three red lights.

Cameron, on his way home, honked once at a car in front of him sitting at a red light. The car started and Cameron drove home. When he got there, the other driver, who followed him, jumped out of the car and said: "Want to make something out of me sitting on two red lights?"

"No," said Cameron. But the man hit him on the head with a flashlight anyway.

News Around Idaho

BOISE, Oct. 22 (U) — Boise Cascade corporation reported earnings of $1.85 per share for the first nine months of 1964, up 28 per cent and equal to earnings for all of 1963. Robert W. Halliday, vice president and treasurer, said sales rose 20 per cent to $101,416,000, and net income 33 per cent to $7,724,000.

IDAHO FALLS, Oct. 22 (U) — The Bonneville county Potomac Grange wants the department of agriculture to stop making monthly potato crop forecasts. It will offer a resolution to that effect at the state Grange convention Oct. 27-30 in Boise. A Grange spokesman, Raymond Carney, said the estimates are usually too high and "are used by potato buyers, handlers and processors as a leverage for forcing down prices paid to farmers."

POCATELLO, Oct. 22 (U) — Pocatello Shriners have set a 10 truckload goal for their annual caravan of food to the Shriners Hospital for crippled children at Salt Lake City. The caravan will make the trip Nov. 7-8.

BOISE, Oct. 22 (U) — Gov. Robert E. Smylie says he thinks Sen. Harry Goldwater has "the edge narrowly" over President Lyndon Johnson among Idaho voters. There still seems to be a very wide area of undecided voters, said Smylie. He said that conclusion was based on a poll of Idaho precinct polls and college and high school opinion samples.

RIDGELY, Oct. 22 (U) — A Roberts bar tender charged with assault with intent to kill has been bound over to district court for trial after a preliminary hearing. Dave Cooper is held under $100,000 bond. He is charged with wounding William Edmeyer, 27, Roberts, with two pistol shots at a Roberts bar Friday night after an argument between Edmeyer and his wife.

COEUR D'ALENE, Oct. 22 (U) — Rep. Compton I. White, D-Idaho, said today a conversion laying ceremony for a new Coeur d'Alene golf course yesterday that it demonstrates the administration's confidence in the growth of north Idaho. White complimented Coeur d'Alene leaders for their work in developing recreational facilities. He said the major factor in the area's growth is its attraction of tourists. White said three bills passed by the 88th congress had laid the groundwork for greater recreational development. "The wilderness, land and water conservation fund and public land law review commission acts have a direct bearing on the future growth of the recreation industry in north Idaho," he said.

BOISE, Oct. 22 (U) — John O. McMurray, Idaho Republican state chairman, asserted yesterday that Rep. Compton I. White, Jr., D-Idaho, was "peddling distortions in an attempt to explain away farm income losses." White has implied to Idaho farmers that stopped up federal farm subsidy payments has meant higher farm income. McMurray said, in a statement, "It is true that the federal farm program under the Democrats has cost more money, but it is not true that pumping more money into the program has brought higher farm income. Net farm income is off 302 million dollars for 1964 while farm debt is up 1 billion dollars this year. Idaho farmers deserve an explanation from White as to why 'what is off 80 cents a bushel this year under a program White supported.'"

COEUR D'ALENE, Oct. 22 (U) — Attorneys for Virginia Maxine Mahoney, 23, have asked for a reduction in the charge against her to second degree murder. She is charged with first degree murder in the death of her husband, William Fairbairn Mahoney, 28, found dead with a bullet wound in the head Oct. 5 in a Coeur d'Alene motel. Judge James G. Towles, Wallace took the motion under advisement. He also raised bond for Mrs. Mahoney to $10,000 and she was returned to jail. She had been free after posting $2,500 bond. She was charged with first degree murder last Thursday. A second degree charge had been filed shortly after she was arrested but authorities said further investigation necessitated the more serious complaint.

League Hears Grange Talk On College

William Grange, Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce secretary-manager, spoke on "facts about the proposed College of Southern Idaho" at a meeting of the Immanuel Lutheran Laymen's league Tuesday evening at Memorial Lutheran school.

Grange said he is one of 25 civic-minded people who are working their time to discuss facts which should be taken into consideration before the Nov. 3 election on the proposal. Grange noted there had been "many misgivings and misunderstandings" pertaining to expansion of the plan. He outlined procedures to be followed in establishing a junior college district, covering factors from the election to financing.

He explained that in the two Idaho districts which now have the first college there is one college enrollment 11 a.m. for every three high school students. On this basis, he said, a potential enrollment of more than 1,100 students from Twin Falls county is feasible. If the college district proposal is passed, he said, adjacent counties may join the district later by a simple majority vote. After the meeting, lunch was served by Mrs. and Mr. Bobby Bopp and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Knutsen.

Oakley Firemen Answer 3 Calls

OAKLEY, Oct. 22 — Firemen answered three calls Tuesday. The first call was turned in at approximately 11 a.m. at Mrs. Verda Gill's residence one block north of town. Burning trash was credited by the firemen as the cause of a weed fire which also burned a pole corral. Before the fireman and truck were able to leave the first fire a second alarm was turned in. Burning trash was again the cause of a weed fire and a small house owned by Mrs. Harry Duck residence east of town. A granary filled with chopped grain belonging to Arthur Bergerson was saved by the firemen. The alarm was again sounded at 7 p.m. when a small fire was started but authorities said further investigation necessitated the more serious complaint.

THOMAS RAY NEWMAN

... son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Thomas Newman, Jerome, will be honored at a farewell luncheon at 7:30 p.m. Sunday at the Jerome second ward LDS chapel. Newman will attend the mission home Oct. 26 for one week and then will attend Brigham Young university language school for 12 weeks intensive training prior to his departure for mission headquarters, Lima, Peru.

Reception Given For Newlyweds In Minidoka

ROPER, Oct. 22 — Mr. and Mrs. Murrell Kay Johnson greeted guests at a wedding reception Aug. 28 at the Minidoka state 125 tabernacle cultural hall, following their marriage Aug. 27 at the Idaho Falls LDS temple.

Mr. Johnson is the former Judy Milligan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil O. Milligan, Loveland, Colo. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ray Johnson, Rupert.

A white arch decorated with white fern and blue bells formed the background for the receiving line. The bride wore a white satin gown which she made herself. The gown featured a fitted lace covered bodice, boat neckline and long tapered sleeves. Soft pleats accented the floor-length skirt. Her bouquet was of white lilies. She carried a bridal bouquet of cascading white carnations tied with blue satin ribbons.

Kaylyn Seamons, Caldwell, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Peggy Milligan, Loveland, LaRue Johnson and Jean Ann Johnson. Harvey Jensen, Carbondale, Colo., was best man.

Judy Coffman was in charge of the guest book and Donna Milligan distributed thank you notes. The bride's attendants wore dark sleeveless, short-length dresses of blue cotton ensembles fashioned similar to that of the bride. They carried white ribbons tied with blue ribbon. Gifts were displayed by Mary Bell Hansen, Ann Williams, Mrs. Rene Hansen and Mrs. C. L. Williams, all Twin Falls. Gifts were carried by Cheri Beasley, Shariene Taylor, Suzanne Bolup, Sally Mackley and Ellen Christiansen.

Water Amendment Said Important to State

In an effort to emphasize the importance of the water resources amendment on the Nov. 3 ballot, supporters of the proposal have prepared a brochure outlining the reasons why they believe the issue to be important.

The brochure has been prepared for distribution by the Idaho Water Resources committee, William E. Holden, Idaho Falls, chairman, said.

The amendment, SJR 1, was approved by special session of the Idaho legislature last spring. Membership of the water committee includes Glenn Nelson, Twin Falls; Rep. William Lantieri, Boise; Sen. George Black, Coeur d'Alene; Rep. Jack Murphy, Shoshone, and Rep. Pete T. Carranza, Carey, plus 39 other citizens from throughout the state.

Purpose of the amendment, according to its supporters, is to preserve Idaho's water resources for use within the state, rather than allowing other states, such as California, to divert water for use outside the state.

"This amendment will result in a workable plan for the complete utilization of Idaho's water resources through the state-sponsored and administered water agency," Holden said.

"We must move to protect our most precious commodity before it's too late," he added.

The brochure contains a descriptive map, like the one accompanying this article, showing the various proposals by federal agencies and other states and complexes to divert Idaho water to outside arid areas.

Gov. Robert E. Smylie says in the brochure, "It is clear that the burgeoning growth of the West will make the competition for water increasingly brisk as the years go by.

"If in the year 2000 we have not put to work on Idaho land all of the water that can be economically and beneficially used here, we will certainly lose its use and its benefits."

The brochure contains statements of supporting newspapers throughout Idaho, including the Times-News. The Boise Statesman, the Pocatello Citizen, the Idaho Falls Post-Register and Idaho State Journal, Pocatello.

Also going out to state voters is a leaflet bearing a smaller version of the explanatory map, and statements of supporting newspapers.

Time your reading of this column and compare your speed with that indicated at the end. The expected speed assumes a daily five per cent improvement.

You're not having any trouble with your studies, so why bother with techniques for faster reading? Well, don't bother—if you don't care about wasting time, if you prefer the laborious way to read.

We've practiced drills for phrase-reading. We'll start off here by reading the three columns that follow. The phrases won't have any logical connection. You've made a hole through that circle above, so have your friend count your eye fixations.

Focus on a word in the middle of the next line. You see words to the left and right of it. Now read the first word in the next line. Your eye read white space to the left—a waste of eye span. Read the last word on the next line. Your eye span took in nothing to the right. The point is clear: Focus on the second or third word of the line; focus on the second or third word anyway.

Now try this simple experiment. Take a card and hide the lower half of any line on this page. Read just the top half of the type. With practice, you can really do without the bottom half. The up-and-down eye span doesn't require you to focus on the whole word any more than the left-to-right eye span required you to focus on the words to the left or right of the word your eyes were fixed on.

These techniques have one purpose: To increase your eye span. Now turn to the news stories in this paper. Pick any news column; they're generally two inches wide. Draw a pencil line down the middle. Focus on that line you've drawn and let

Your eyes take in, with one fixation, the words to the left and right. If you fear you've missed something, don't go back. Keep going at a comfortable speed. (A good help here is to place a card over the lines and let it reveal one line at a time in a regular rhythm.) Now go back and see how much you've learned by one fixation per line. Practice will take care of the little you miss.

Now draw a line through another news story. This time practice two steps. To increase left-to-right eye span and up-and-down eye span, focus on that center line but also focus just above the line of type as you draw your panning card down the column.

In all these drills with news stories, punch a hole through the top of the column so you're able to be secured for fixations by your friend. When you feel you're really getting somewhere and your eye span is approaching what nature intended it to be, practice with columns of greater width.

(You should have completed this reading in 81 seconds.)

Buhl and Jerome to Test Unbeaten Clubs; Gooding, Mushers Can Cinch Titles

Buhl and Jerome are cast in the role of "apollons," the Twin Falls Bruins make their final home appearance of the season and Camas County runs for another Snake River conference championship in the highlights of this week-end's high school football action. Although four teams wound up their season last week-end, the number of games available to area fans remains the same—14—as three out-

"It's Battle of Palouse" week in Moscow and perhaps decision time for the University of Idaho Vandals. The Vandals take on Washington State in Moscow with the stadium completely sold "outside" the gate. Admission tickets going on sale Saturday morning.

But while it will be a gain for the crowd, coach Dee Andros and the Vandals are frustrated for the past four week-ends, are preparing for the game of their lives.

"The kids are tired of playing great football and losing. The week-end game is a real test. The kids are tired of playing great football and losing. The week-end game is a real test. The kids are tired of playing great football and losing. The week-end game is a real test."

Looking at WSU Andros said "the feeling around here is that we're favored. That's kinda unusual as they are 3-2 and we're 1-4. But they think in this game we've had a tougher schedule."

"We don't plan anything special for them except to use the offensive sets our scouting reports and the movie editing work we've done on their defenses," Andros continued.

Defensively Andros appraised WSU this way: "They use eight different offensive sets with Clancy Williams in a different spot each one. That's our target. We have to stop Williams first and then Peterson."

The Vandals enter the game without the great middle linebacker Dick Litzinger, who wrenched a knee against Utah and has been sidelined since. A specialist on whether the knee will require surgery or not, And Litzinger's replacement, Hal Busby, also was hurt against Oregon and missed last week. He suited up Wednesday but his availability for Saturday still isn't known.

"We'll go with (Dale) Meyer (former offensive fullback) at linebacker," Andros said. He's a good linebacker. He doesn't have the range of Litzinger but he did a good job for us in the last half against Oregon State."

There was one good report for Vandals fans on the near-eyes of the "big game."

Refuge Plan On Kootenai Is Opposed

BOISE, Oct. 22 (AP)—The fish and game commission has taken under advisement a request from a Boundary county delegation to intervene in the proposed creation of a Kootenai river national wildlife refuge.

Members said it would bring economic loss to the county. They asked the commission to use its influence to get the U. S. fish and wildlife service to halt acquisition of lands until it conducts adequate hearings and explains its plans.

Also under advisement are three resolutions from the Optimal Sportsmen's club. They asked a reduction in the trout bag limit from the present 15 down to 10 or 12 per day, for a smaller, more compact big-game bag, and for a change in management to increase the deer herd on the Boise river drainage.

The commission approved purchase of access to the Snake river at Bell rapids in the Hagerman valley for $5,000, and approved a $7,500 salmon and steelhead tagging study project.

A portion of the Hagerman wildlife management area known as the Frank Creek river is to be set aside for trophy hunting beginning Nov. 1.

No Hunting

RICHFIELD, Oct. 22 — Many Richfield farmers would like to put a "no-hunting" sign on their lawns and ovals during the coming season. The town's hunting laws are very strict, and the farmers are very busy now digging out the mice from the fields. Gun-happy hunters beware!

Melvin Wellhausen watched a coyote follow along behind his trailer, eating mice, until suddenly the animal looked up and realized how close he was, and bolted.

The Magic Valley conference also marks this week-end. Oakley will host Hagerman in a non-league game while Pocatello will play at Blaine, where the Trojans haven't managed a win.

Murtaugh, given the only chance of catching Deola, is at Rockland while Hansen travels to Castelford.

Eight-man action is limited to two games. The Camas County Mushers need only a victory over Bliss to claim the Snake River conference but Bliss coach Arlen Musser promises his Bears will give the game everything they have. Should Camas County win, it would put the Mushers in a playoff game with Cascade for the third-fourth district title.

Strong Tops SIC in Rushing, Total Offense; Astorquia, Lynch Show Well

Bruin tailback Scott Strong, a 5-foot, 10-inch 170 pounder, leads the Southern Idaho conference in four major categories and, although an inconsistent passer, also holds the best completion percentage, according to statistics released today by conference coaches.

But the Twin Falls senior needn't look far behind him to find last year's total offense champion, Steve Garman, Caldwell, closing in on him. And with Garman comes his pass catching partner, Roger Cantion, who caught seven passes last week and now leads in conference action with nine.

Strong had 780 yards in 101 rushing tries for all seven games and has 301 yards in 43 carries in three loss encounters. With six of 11 passes completed, his total offense for the season is 863 yards in 112 plays and in conference play he has 52 carries and 273 yards.

Caldwell, which did not participate in the pre-conference statistics pool, saw Garman climb into second in conference total offense with 313 yards in 48 plays.

Garman's Steve Preese remains second in overall season total offense with 586 yards and 100 plays.

Roger Seaton, Pocatello fullback, ranks second in rushing on both rushing and passing yards for the year and 226 yards in the conference.

Although Strong has a .555 completion percentage for the season, teammate John Astorquia remains the top man in passing yardage with 501. Astorquia also is tops in loop play with 305 but Garman, whose .542 percentage leads in loop statistics, has 273.

Last year Garman had 1256 yards in total offense and about 150 through the air.

Although Cantion, who made 47 catches last year, leads in conference, Doyle's Kent Scott is out in front in total receiving with 15 grabs for 280 yards. Greg

Pistons Cop First Win of Season

DETROIT, Oct. 22 (AP)—Reggie Harding and Dave Debuschere pushed the Detroit Pistons Wednesday night to their first victory this season in the National Basketball Association, 109-104 over San Francisco.

It was the Warriors' third loss in as many starts. But the defending Western Division champions were playing without their star, Wilt Chamberlain, who was in a Philadelphia hospital.

Debuschere, a pitcher in the Chicago White Sox system during the summer, came off the bench late in the second period and provided the key passes and rebounds while Harding made two fast break layups.

The combination lifted the Pistons from a seven-point deficit to a 54-50 halftime lead.

Oliva Said Close To Draft Notice

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL, Oct. 22 (AP)—A Twin Cities television station said Wednesday night it had learned that Minnesota rookie baseball star Tony Oliva apparently would be drafted into the armed forces within 60 days.

However, Twins President Calvin Griffith said the news nothing of the report and expects Oliva to be clear of the draft for another year.

Injunction Issued Against Brave Move

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 22 (AP)—A temporary injunction restraining the Milwaukee Braves from moving or from applying to either the president of the National League or the others of other league teams for permission to move, was issued last Wednesday by circuit Judge Ronald Drechsler.

The order was obtained by Milwaukee county officials shortly after the Braves' board of directors voted 12-6 at a Chicago meeting to shift the franchise to Atlanta, Ga., for the 1965 season.

Judge Drechsler ordered representatives of the Braves to appear next Tuesday to show cause why the injunction should not be made permanent.

It could not be determined immediately whether the legal papers could be served in time to block the expected presentation of the Braves' request at a Thursday meeting in New York of National League owners who are expected to approve the shift.

Other points in the order temporarily prohibit the Braves from: Transferring the Braves' membership in the National League from Milwaukee and from removing any of the team's assets from the state of Wisconsin.

Taking any action to dissolve the Milwaukee Braves, Inc. Transferring any of the Braves' player contracts or rights, except to other members of the National League.

Red Wings Slip Past N. Y. 1-0

NEW YORK, Oct. 22 (AP)—A slick deflection by Detroit Norm Ullman gave the Red Wings a third-period goal and a 1-0 victory over the New York Rangers in a National Hockey League game Wednesday night.

The goal ended a stirring duel between rookies Detroit goalie Roger Crozier and New York netminder Marcel Paille.

Paille was especially impressive, in coming back and virtually matching Crozier, although he sustained a 12-alice skate cut over his right temple with 7:17 left in the first period. It came from teammate Andy Brown's skates as the defense made a dive to clear his puck.

Two U. S. Girl Canoeists Place, Yanks Hold Lead

TOKYO, Oct. 22 (UPI) — American girl canoeists stunned European exports by winning silver and bronze medals at the Olympic games today and United States hopes for holding its over-all gold medal lead zoomed when Russian gymnasts were beaten in four events tonight.

Yankees Send Ralph Terry To Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Oct. 22 (AP) — The Cleveland Indians acquired Wednesday the pitcher Ralph Terry from the New York Yankees as part of the deal that sent Pedro Ramos to New York last month.

Ramos, pitching in relief, was traded by the Yankees with a reported $75,000 plus two players to be named at a later date. There were reports that the Yankees had a left-handed pitcher, who would be the other player to go to the Indians.

Terry, 28, appeared in 27 games for the Yankees and finished with a 7-11 record. He won five of his last 10 starts. He won 23 games and pitched 234 innings in the 1962 world series. Last year he had a 17-15 record.

Thomas Finds Loss Tough, Medal Okay

TOKYO, Oct. 22 (AP) — "He beat me on fewer mistakes," said a disappointed John Thomas. "That's a tough way to lose."

And so Thomas, the Boston hotel man, lost the high jump in the Olympic final Wednesday.

Thomas, almost upset world record holder Valery Brumel of Russia.

Both men missed all three times at 7 feet, 2 1/2 inches and the officials had to hunt back to the 7 foot 1 inch height to find a winner.

Thomas missed that height on his first try.

Both cleared 7 feet, 1 1/2 on the second try.

"I did my best," Thomas said. "I satisfied myself. So even if I didn't satisfy anyone else, I satisfied myself. And that's what counts."

Thomas has been bitterly outwitted in the reactions to his loss in Rome, where he was world record-holder and considered an absolute clinch.

This time it was Brumel who vaulted the clinch, and who also lost.

"Not so good tonight," Brumel said. "Not right."

The Russian explained that he had been out of form for a month. John (Twiggy) Brumel, a student at Long Beach State college who finished third, said:

"I'm afraid I haven't dedicated myself to the high jump enough. Too much basketball. I got too out there, and thought I had a chance to win, but I got too tired."

"But I'll be back to try in 1964."

And will Thomas come back for a try at this third Olympics?

"I never give up," Thomas said, in his broad Boston accent.

Yankees Place 3 Men On Major All-Star Team

NEW YORK, Oct. 22 (AP) — The New York Yankees placed the most players, outfielder Mickey Vernon, catcher Elston Howard and second baseman Bobby Richardson, on the Associated Press annual major league all-star team.

The two Los Angeles pitchers, Andy Koufax of the Dodgers and Don Chance of the Angels, collected the most votes.

Koufax, who won 16-3 games before he was sidelined for the season by a sore arm in mid-August, polled 77 votes as the outstanding left-hander. Chance, a 20-game winner for the Angels, drew 71 votes as the outstanding right-hander.

Others named were first baseman Bill White of the world series champion St. Louis Cardinals, third baseman Brooks Robinson of the Baltimore Orioles, and pitcher Jim Fregosi of the Angels.

Outfielder Willie Mays of the San Francisco Giants and National League batting champion Roberto Clemente of the Pittsburgh Pirates were named to the regular season performance.

Twin Falls' 1964 Bruins make their last appearance of the season Friday night at Lincoln field, hosting the "sleeping giants" of the Southern Idaho conference—the Caldwell Cougars.

Borah, Boise Stay One-Two in Poll; Bruins Return to Third

Borah tightened its grip on first place in the Associated Press poll for Idaho high school football despite an idle week-end by hauling down the top spot on 14 of the 16 ballots cast by AP member sportswriters and sportscasters. Cross-city rival, Boise, the only team besides the Lions to place first in the nearly two years of voting, remained solidly in second and drew one initial berth ballot.

Borah, 6-0 for the current season, takes a 15-0 record winning streak to its home game Friday with Southern Idaho conference opponent Pocatello, no longer a member of the top ten.

Idaho Falls, which was third before last week-end's 7-7 tie with Burley, fell to fourth and was replaced by Twin Falls, now 6-1 and last week's fifth place club. Burley, unbeaten in six games is fifth.

Sandpoint, 10-14 loser to Lewiston, slid from fourth to sixth but continues to lead the lowly North Idaho contingent. Lewiston, despite a 3-4 record, jumped from 14th to seventh and Coeur d'Alene, on which no score was reported last week-end, climbed from ninth to eighth.

Moscow, 20-13 winner over last week's sixth-place Wallace, shares ninth with Nampa, a 3-6 loser to Boise. Moscow is 3-4 and Nampa is 3-3.

Idaho Falls, 3-3, mark Marshall Valley, which improved its record to 7-0 and was unscathed on its last four games, edged its way into eleventh, three points behind the Nampa-Moscow tie and two points ahead of Caldwell, owner of a 3-3 record.

Marshall Valley has scored 200 points while allowing 18.

Twenty teams drew mention on the 16 ballots—the average for the season is 20 teams per ballot and 15 voters.

West and Baylor Pace Laker Win

BALTIMORE, Oct. 22 (AP) — Jerry West and Elgin Baylor, the potent scoring punch of the Los Angeles Lakers, tallied 60 points between them and placed the Lakers to a 108-105 National Basketball Association decision over the Baltimore Bullets Wednesday night.

Baylor, who scored only two points in the first half, made 10 after intermission including the basket which put Los Angeles ahead 100-99 with 2:35 remaining.

West, who scored 33 points, then added more than 400 shots from the floor and a 104-90 Los Angeles lead. Dick Barnett scored the final four points on foul shots.

Hawks, Montreal Battle to Draw

MONTREAL, Oct. 22 (AP) — Chico Maki's third period goal sent the Chicago Black Hawks to a 5-3 National Hockey League deadlock with the Montreal Canadiens Wednesday night after the Hawks blew an early three-goal lead.

The Canadiens, trailing 3-0 after the first period, had struck for five second period scores, with unassisted goals by Jacques Laperriere and Ralph Backstrom inside of only eight seconds capping the rally. The outburst gave Montreal a 5-4 margin, Bobby Hull having scored for Chicago in the middle period.

Work Begins On Bleachers At Grid Field

Work on the new Twin Falls high school football field's bleachers and concession stand was under way this week and, with weather holding up, the completion of foundation laying is expected by early next week.

The new bleachers, which will raise the seating capacity to 4,000—including the 1,000 on the third side of the field, will be 100 yards long by 10 rows high. There will be four tunnels plus a 30-foot passbox.

Ernest Haglund, superintendent of class A school district No. 411, said the board was interested in getting the cement work done this fall to allow steel and wood crews to work as often as possible through the winter. He said the completion date would be about March 15, indicating the facility will be ready for the track season.

Already installed is the $1,600 all-electric scoreboard donated by the Twin Falls Lions club. And well under way is the addition to the gymnasium of a weight and wrestling room, two dressing rooms and a shower.

"When this is completed, our athletic plant will be second to none," says athletic director Paul Ostyn.

TV Schedule

THURSDAY, OCT. 22

"Dr. Kildare," (7:30 p.m. NBC) — "The condition report" for tonight's episode is comedy-drama. The staff is confronted by the grandson of the hospital's founder. The bungling man wants to have his family declared incompetent.

"Suspense Theater," (Color, 9 p.m. NBC) — Singer Robert Goulet makes his television dramatic debut in "Operation Orlif." Claude Adkins heads the cast as an army sergeant, making a plane run during battle of the Bulge, who gives a lift to four young troopers. But one of them might be a Nazi trying to infiltrate American lines.

"Perry Mason," (9 p.m. CBS) — When the young European bride of a woman older than himself is found murdered in a swimming pool, the police arrest a French maid for the crime and Mason is hired to defend her.

BEST THURSDAY NIGHT MOVIES

"The Big Leagues," (1953) Edward G. Robinson, Vera Ellen and John Richards (9:30 p.m. KMTV) — Routine baseball film centering on the bush leagues and the rise of a contender for the pennant. Both Robinson and dancer Vera Ellen seem very much out of place in this drama.

"So Well Remembered," (Dritlah, 1947) — John Mills and Martha Scott (10:30 p.m. KSL) — Story of a couple separated by the ideals of one and the ambition of the other.

"The Harder They Fall," (1956) Humphrey Bogart, Jan Sterling and Rod Taylor (10:40 p.m. KOPX) — Excellent fight game movie based on the Budd Schulberg novel. Bogart gives his usual great performance with Sterling matching him.

RUPERT, Oct. 22—Arlo Montgomery has been selected a member of the board of directors for the central Idaho 4-H camp for a one-year term. It was announced Monday evening at the regular meeting of the 4-H Leaders association and 4-H Builders club.

Nine 4-H leaders from Minidoka county will attend the two-day session. Standard Oil funds will pay for the leaders' expenses while at the meeting.

Leaders may register for the session any time at the office of the county agent.

Lewis reminded members of the annual Leader banquet to be held Nov. 16 at the Emerson Grange hall. He also announced 4-H achievement night will be held Nov. 24, with the place to be announced later. Purpose of the leader banquet is to honor all 4-H leaders in the county.

U.S. Faces Long Period of Uncertainty

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22 (AP)—U.S. officials appear to feel that this country faces a long period of uncertainty in its dealings with both friend and foe as a result of major global developments last week.

As far as Britain and Russia are concerned, most officials seem to believe they are confronting "stop-gap" regimes.

There is, in addition, uncertainty about the ultimate effect of Red China's nuclear success on the world scene.

Taken in order, these are some of the views being expressed on the tumultuous world events of last week.

Russia — Authorities are inclined to believe that the new Soviet premier, Alexei N. Kosygin, and communist party chief Leonid L. Brezhnev make up a transitional regime. They are expected to follow present policy lines, while the collective Kremlin leadership reviews strategy to cope with Russia's mounting foreign and domestic problems.

Some officials believe that a single leader eventually will emerge. He could be Nikolai Podgorny, a powerful secretary in the Presidium, or Mikhail Suslov, the party's chief theoretician who survived both Stalin and Khrushchev.

Britain — Because of its thin parliamentary majority, the

Cox, who was arrested Friday, was charged with the theft of a tachometer Thursday from a car months in which to become bogged down in the country's financial problems before forging a showdown vote in the House of Commons which most probably will bring new elections.

Arrangements are being made for Wilson to confer with U.S. officials in Washington shortly after the Nov. 3 presidential election. This is, first, because Wilson is anxious to make the trip; second, because it would reaffirm the basic Anglo-American solidarity which exists no matter which party is in power.

Red China — No official here pretends to know what effect China's nuclear success, limited as it was, will have on the Russian-Chinese conflict or on Southeast Asia. President Johnson has sought to counter the effect of Red China's initial nuclear explosion, which Secretary

Cook Now Is Full Owner Of Blacker's

Edwin Cook, 703 Walnut street north, has bought out his two partners in Blacker's Appliance and Furniture store, 223 Second avenue east, and with the exception of a few minor changes will "continue to run the store much the same."

Cook stated Wednesday that he offered his partners, T. C. Blacker and Jack C. Madison, a sufficient amount for their share in the business.

The three men have been partners since they opened the local store in May of 1959.

There will be no change in merchandise lines or any major policy change, Cook noted, adding that the store will keep the same customer relationship.

He also noted that he anticipates a few minor changes.

The store will remain open from 9 a. m. until 9 p. m. Monday through Friday and from 9 a. m. until 6 p. m. Saturday.

Campaign to Downgrade Russian Halts

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, Oct. 22 (AP)—Denmark's communist newspaper says the Soviet Union's new leaders have halted their campaign to downgrade Nikita Khrushchev because of the adverse reaction from most European communist parties.

Peter Schaeffer, Moscow correspondent of the Danish party's newspaper, said meetings in Lang Og Folk, said meetings in Soviet plants, state institutions and other places attacking Khrushchev have been stopped.

Big Bringer, Moscow correspondent of Copenhagen's liberal newspaper, Politiken, reported that Khrushchev and his wife, Nina, have been installed under strict house arrest in a four-room apartment "from where he can see the Kremlin towers."

"Khrushchev is said to have received a pension of 1,000 rubles a month—which is 300 rubles more than he himself gave former Foreign Minister Molotov," Bringer said. A ruble is valued at $1.11.

As communist spokesmen outside the Soviet Union openly criticized the manner in which Khrushchev was "dumped," the Kremlin issued an urgent call for communist unity.

Communist leaders in Europe and elsewhere reacted with dismay and resentment after Pravda's blast. In a Friday editorial, the Soviet newspaper attacked Khrushchev without actually naming him.

No Significant Fallout Reported On United States

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22 (AP)—No significant fallout was reported on the United States as most of the radioactive cloud from Red China's nuclear test floated across the American mainland and out to sea, the weather bureau said.

It said last night that a lack of rainfall was helpful. Rain in the path of the cloud might have brought some of the radioactivity to earth.

Even if predicted rain had not held off, except in northern New England, atomic energy commission scientists said fallout from last Friday's "low yield" test had not been expected to cause any undue health hazard in the United States.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS
First impressions count—and they count big! Forget the old bromide—that you can't tell a book by its cover—because most people do judge other people, places, and even products on the basis of their first impressions.

UNOFFICIAL SPEED RECORD was set by this Bell YUHID flight research compound helicopter when it was flown 230 miles an hour last week at the company plant near Fort Worth, Tex. The Russians hold the official world speed record for such craft. The speed will not be claimed as an official record since the flight was not made under conditions required for official recognition. The current record is 221 miles an hour set in 1961 by a Russian Kamov compound helicopter. (AP wirephoto)

5 Brothers, Blind Since Birth, See

CALTANISSETTA, Sicily, Oct. 22 (AP)—Five brothers blind since birth got their first dim glimpse of the world Tuesday and cried with delight.

The Rotolo brothers were operated on for removal of congenital cataracts Oct. 8. Yesterday, surgeon Luigi Picardo carefully removed their bandages in a darkened room.

Four-year-old Onoforo, the youngest, was first. "The necktie," he cried, tugging at the surgeon's tie. "I can see."

The removal of the bandages from Giuseppe, 6, and Giovanni, 11, Carmelo, 13, and Paolo, 15, also was accompanied by shouts of joy.

Picardo said the boys must spend a few days in the darkened room, but soon will be able to go outside wearing dark glasses, and eventually need wear only ordinary glasses.

California Is Mostly Demo

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Oct. 22 (AP)—California, one of the big and vital states in the 1964 presidential election, has reported its heaviest Democratic registration in 14 years.

The Democrats claim 57.9 percent of the state's record 8,141,151 eligible voters.

The Republicans have 38.9 percent with the remainder distributed between miscellaneous and those who declined to state party preference.

Not since 1950 have the Democrats won such a margin. That year the percentage was Democrats 56.4, Republicans 37.1.

Republicans point out that in 1950 Earl Warren, now chief justice of the United States, won his third term as governor by defeating Democrat James Roosevelt.

The largest Democratic majority in the past 42 years was 1942-60.2 percent to 35.9 percent and that year Warren, a Republican, won his first term as governor, besting incumbent Democrat Culbert Olson.

The 1962 percentage favored the Democrats 58.9 to 39.8.

Republican presidential candidate Barry Goldwater has listed California with its 40 electoral votes as one of the four key states in his bid for the White House. The others are Texas, Illinois and Ohio.

In the 1960 presidential election, when Republican Richard M. Nixon carried California, the Democrats had a registration edge of 1.2 million. This year it is 1.55 million.

Democrats see the registration as an indication of Goldwater's defeat in the nation's most populous state.

Republicans shrug off the figures as just statistics.

The state Democratic chairman, Roger Kent, said the registration gains reflected a repudiation of Goldwater.

John P. Vukasin, Jr., an official of the Volunteer Citizens for Goldwater organization, said there was no connection between the registration total and the presidential race.

Thursday, Oct. 22, 1964
Twin Falls Times-News 27

Kent said the Democratic gains could be credited to a "startling lack of enthusiasm for the Republican candidate and the Republican platform."

Kent predicted that 35 percent of the Republican vote in Northern California would go to President Johnson.

Vukasin took a different view. "A large number of people coming into California," he said, "are from areas where they traditionally register as Democrats."

OPEN LETTER TO THE INCUMBENT CONGRESSMAN

RICHARD W. HENDRICKS
Campaign Manager for George Hansen
P. O. Box 437
Boda Springs, Idaho

October 20, 1964

Congressman Ralph Harding
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Harding:

I am deeply concerned about your financial support from the "Council for a Livable World" organization. I have great reason to doubt the soundness of an Idaho congressman accepting finances from a secret political organization such as this.

Since you acknowledged that you are receiving funds (Teachers' Institute, Pontefract, October 9, 1964) from members of this organization, I feel you will not be opposed to answering a few questions.

Remembering the last-minute attempt at character assassination used on your behalf against Senator Burdick and Gov. Hansen in past campaigns, I am asking these questions early to give you time to answer them.

- (1) Do you agree with this organization's (Council for a Livable World) methods of approach?
- (2) Do you agree with the organization's (Council for a Livable World) infiltration of Arms Control and Disarmament Agency (an organization of the State Department)?
- (3) Extra-governmental conferences with Red scientists?
- (4) Buy United States elections?
- (5) Do you agree with the organization's (Council for a Livable World) Unilateral Disarmament stripping the United States of its muscle, turning this country into a fourth-rate power at the mercy of the international wolf pack?
- (6) Why is this organization backing you?
- (7) Do you agree with its views?

I would suggest that you follow the example of Democratic Senator Burdick from North Dakota, who returned the $14,000 that he received from the Council, and return all finances that you claim to have received from the membership.

You are aware, of course, that all of this information was taken from the October 2, 1964 Congressional Record - Senate, Pages 23039-40-41 as compiled by a group of senators and their staffs.

Your name (Ralph Harding) appears on Page 23041 as a recipient of funds from contributing members of the Council whose last names ranged from "T" through "Z" in the alphabet.

Feel free to answer.

Sincerely,
RICHARD W. HENDRICKS
(Signed)

Clothing Is Needed for Play Costume

BUIH, Oct. 22—The need for used clothing to be converted into costumes for the Buih high school senior class play, "The Taming of the Shrew," to be presented in November was stressed by Mrs. Fred Brallford at the monthly Buih PTA meeting Monday evening in the elementary school.

Mrs. Brallford noted any type of old clothing as well as curtains and drapes can be used and will be cut up and made into costumes. She also reported heavy costume jewelry is needed as well as volunteer help to make the attire.

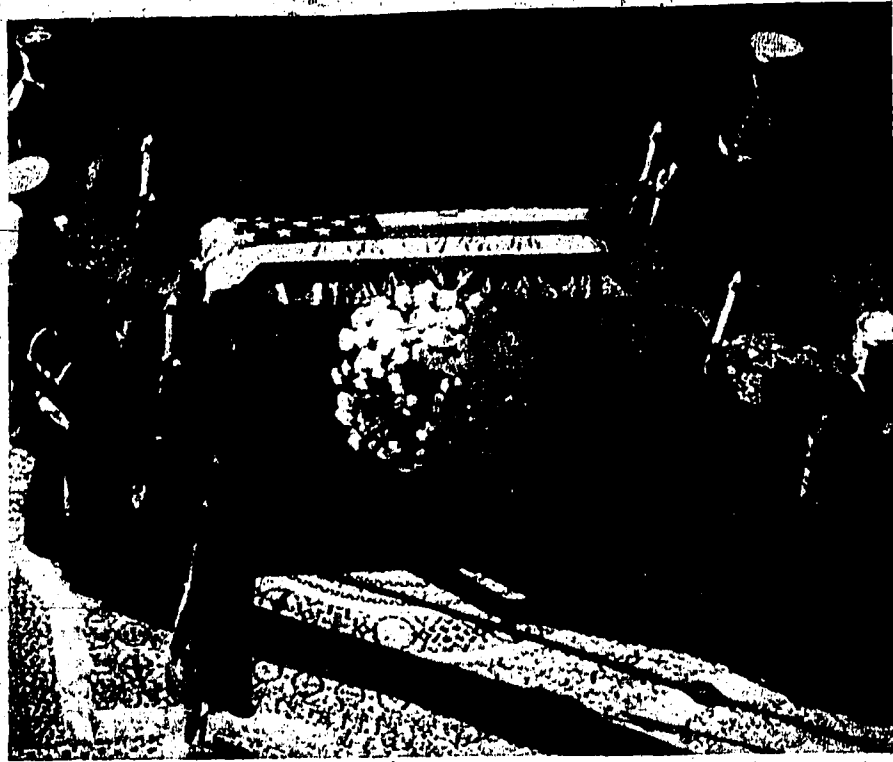

Persons having items to donate for the play and mothers who can sew and will volunteer their services are asked to contact either Mrs. Brallford or Mrs. Lionel Miller.

Guest speaker for the first PTA meeting of the season was Jack Shaw, Twin Falls, chairman of the 25 member committee working towards the promotion of the establishment of a junior college district in Twin Falls county.

Shaw outlined the benefits of a junior college district, explained the reasons why the district is planned for one county rather than multiple counties, and pointed out the costs involved for property taxpayers.

In urgent support of the issue during the Nov. 3 general election, he was introduced by John Hepworth, local attorney, and member of the county wide committee.

Mrs. Newell Johnson, president, announced PTA meetings will be held in the Buih elementary school unless otherwise announced.

REPRESENTING ALL of the country's armed forces, honor guard keeps vigil at casket of Herbert Clark Hoover in New York's St. Bartholomew's Episcopal church Wednesday. Brezhnev Was Khrushchev's Right Hand Man for 26 Years Before Ouster

BY RAY CROMLEY
Leonid Ilyich Brezhnev will be no easier to deal with than Nikita Khrushchev.

The new Russian boss is smoother, more dignified and reserved. He knows how to cut his losses, jump out of situations that no longer are profitable.

But for the past 26 years he has been the man Khrushchev has called on every time he's had a job calling for a tough, ruthless administrator.

Brezhnev didn't become a communist until he was 26. He made little progress until Khrushchev discovered him at the age of 32.

In the Ukrainian purges of the late 1930s he was Khrushchev's enforcer. Those purges were so drastic and the Red rule over the Ukraine was so oppressive that in World War II many Ukrainians welcomed the advancing German armies.

When Khrushchev became a military commissar in the war, he took Brezhnev along. Brezhnev made major general at 37 and was chief of the political board of the southern front. He racked up a reputation for ruthlessness even among the tough army men.

After the war, Brezhnev joined Khrushchev's struggle for Stalin's seat. Khrushchev had him made a secretary of the central committee and a candidate member of the ruling Presidium.

During Khrushchev's temporary eclipse in the Malenkov-Beria-Nikolov takeover at Stalin's death, Brezhnev lost his Presidium post. But when Khrushchev worked his way back up to party first secretary, Brezhnev became chief political commissar of the defense ministry.

In 1954 Khrushchev staked his political survival on his proposal to create a new grain bowl in Kazakhstan. Experts said the result would be a mammoth dust bowl. Khrushchev sent Brezhnev, in two years, with luck, good rainfall and able organization, Brezhnev produced large crops that astounded the experts.

Khrushchev used this success to put Brezhnev back on the Presidium. Kazakhstan later became a dust bowl, as predicted, but the blame fell on Brezhnev's successor after a Moscow investigation. (The investigator who passed judgment was Brezhnev, himself.)

In 1958, when Khrushchev set out to wreck the proposed summit conference, blaming the U-2 flights, he sold the Presidium on the need for a young, tough man—Brezhnev—to replace the aging (60-year-old) Voroshilov at this time of crisis.

Again, when the Soviet space program showed signs of lagging, Brezhnev pulled Khrushchev's chestnuts out of the fire by helping with a series of man-in-orbit successes (for which he received the title of Hero of socialist labor). His contribution: excellent organization and bawling heads together.

Of late, Khrushchev's enemies have been growing in strength. Agriculture continues in a slump. Russia's position in international communism is slipping. Many governers Soviet-backed commu-

nat parties are not doing well. The Soviet position is weakening in Africa and Latin America.

Therefore, Khrushchev took Brezhnev out as president of the Soviet Union, put him full time in the communist party secretariat (organization and patronage) so that he could build his party following. The estimate here was that within six months Brezhnev would be strong enough to take over.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

THURSDAY, Oct. 22—Born today, you are affectionate, kind and generous—the sort of person who makes friends easily, keeps them long and leaves them only after the most bitter provocation. Your interest in people is obvious to anyone fortunate enough to know you even slightly; no troubled person is ever turned away from your door or denied your sympathetic, listening ear.

Yet you are a person of contrasts. Much as you respond emotionally to people and situations, you have one of those steel-trap minds that takes in, sorts out and stores away knowledge relentlessly, yet effortlessly. Though your initial approach to a problem may be entirely emotional, your actual consideration of it is generally intellectual and scientific.

Making so many friends, you may find it difficult to narrow the field enough to choose a mate. Don't dawdle too long in indecision, however; marriage is something you would not be happy without, and a decision eventually must be made. Only take care not to choose someone whose love of people is less than your own.

Among those born on this date are: Franz Liszt, famed pianist; composer: Joan Fontaine, actress; Collis Potter Huntington, railroad magnate.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Friday—Oct. 23
LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23)—Let the versatility that is Libra's birthright guide you into the right decision regarding your career. Consider instinct and training.

Teachers in T. F. Support College Issue

"The Twin Falls Education Association voted unanimously Tuesday night to go on record as supporting the proposed Twin Falls county junior college," according to Del Slaughter, president of the organization.

Approximately 105 members met at the Lincoln school to review the issue.

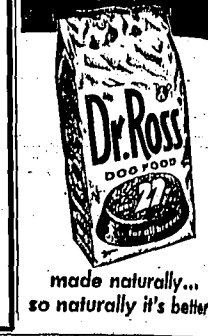

A report was given by Mrs. Lorraine Turner, O'Leary Junior High school, and her committee concerning the legislative action and the way candidates for state office voted on issues affecting education.

Mrs. Dorothy Daily, Lincoln elementary school, chairman of the citizenship committee, reported on the action at the National Education Association meeting and urged members to take an active part in politics.

Vietnamese To Name New Government

BAYCON, South Viet Nam, Oct. 22—A new civilian government will be appointed by South Viet Nam's high national council sometime before Oct. 27, the military government announced tonight.

It was speculated that the 17-member council, named to restore civilian rule, might name Phan Khac Bui, its chairman, as the new chief of state. An announcement was expected Friday, when the council is scheduled to hold a news conference.

In a decree signed by the ruling triumvirate, Maj. Gen. Duong Van Minh, chief of state; Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh, premier, and Lieut. Gen. Tran Thien Khlem, now in Hong Kong, the government said.

"The high national council of the nation has the right and duty to install the organism of state, including the immediate election of the provisional chief of state, and, thus, the council must choose immediately in forming a civilian government before Oct. 27."

Report Given
RICHFIELD, Oct. 22—Stanley Larson, conservation officer, Shoshone, reported on the hunting and fishing in this area at the Monday night Rod and Gun club dinner meeting. Howard Knowles, Shoshone, was a visitor.

Edward Schuler and Donald Myers were also representatives to the sportsman meeting in Shoshone recently. A film by Larson is scheduled for the November meeting when reports will be given.

Open House Set
HAGERMAN, Oct. 22—An open house will be held from 7 to 9 p.m. Oct. 28 at the grade school and high school buildings, to enable parents to visit the school and become acquainted with their children's teachers, and the work they are doing in the classrooms.
